ORANGE WORKFORCE CENTER TO HOST OPEN HOUSE AND REGIONAL JOB FAIR

Orange County, VA – On Tuesday April 24, 2018, the Orange Workforce Center will be hosting an Open House from 9 a.m.-Noon at 127 Belleview Ave., Orange, VA 22960. Light refreshments will be served.

Throughout the morning, one of the six partners at the Workforce Center will give a short presentation on the services they offer. Partners include: the Virginia Employment Commission, the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, the Senior Community Service Employment Program, Piedmont Regional Adult Education, Division of Rehabilitative Services, and Germanna Community College. In addition, AmeriCare Plus will be present taking applications and interviewing for CNAs, RNs, NAs, and PCAs at the Center. Drop-in for part-of, or all of the morning. Marty Bywaters-Baldwin, Center Manager noted, “We invite the entire community to come see the free employment resources available right here in downtown Orange.”

The Orange Workforce Center offers free job search, resume-writing, and employee recruitment services for residents and businesses. The Center is sponsored by Orange County and the Piedmont Workforce Network. For more information, contact Stacey Brown, Resource Room Specialist at (540) 661-4654 or Stacey.Brown@fredgoodwill.org.
