ORANGE COUNTY WELCOMES NEW HUMAN RESOURCES DIRECTOR

Orange County, VA – Orange County is pleased to announce the employment of Jenny Carpenter, as Human Resources Director effective February 22, 2021.

Carpenter, an Orange County native, holds a MBA in Human Resource Management from Liberty University and brings over eight (8) years of human resource experience including payroll, benefits administration, recruitment, employee relations, and employee development. She earned her undergraduate degree at Old Dominion University and obtained her Certified Professional designation from the Society for Human Resources Management.

As Director of Human Resources for Teachstone Training, Carpenter not only ran the human resources department but also lead the company's move to a digital platform for payroll, benefits, and human resources administration.

“Orange County is excited to have Mrs. Carpenter join our team,” Theodore L. Voorhees, County Administrator, noted. “She brings many years of progressive human resources leadership to our organization along with a vibrant commitment to employee development and community service.”

Carpenter said she is privileged to have the opportunity to serve Orange County and to continue her commitment to help make Orange County a great place to work and live.
