LOCAL BOARD OF BUILDING CODE APPEALS

MEETING MAY 19, 2021

Meeting was called to order at 5:03 pm

Members Present: GW Gray, Building Official, Barbara Crozier, Secretary, Benny Sedwick, Danny Gooch, George Allman, Joe Wayner

Members Absent: Marshall Gillum

Barbara announced that Marshall Gillum by e-mail offered to remain Chairman if the Board was inclined to nominate him. Danny Gooch made a motion to keep Marshall Gillum as Chairman and George Allman seconded. The motion carried unanimously. Barbara Crozier announced that she would be retiring from Orange County in November and would no longer be able to serve as Secretary. Barbara said that she had spoken with her assistant Kathy Cash and she is willing to take the position if so nominated. The motion was made by Benny Sedwick and seconded by Danny Gooch to nominate Kathy Cash as the new secretary and carried unanimously.

It was noted that the Board of Supervisors has the following term expirations:

Marshall Gilliam	12/31/24
Joe Waynor	12/31/24
Danny Gooch	12/31/25
Benny Sedwick	12/31/25
George Allman	12/31/25

All agreed to except the terms as listed.

GW announced that the 2018 Code would be in affect July 1, 2021 and there would be a one-year grace period. When requested the 2015 Code can be used for one year or until July 1, 2022.

Discussion ensued.

Josh Gillespie, Planning and Development Services Director, came by the meeting and introduced himself. He passed out business cards and gave a history of his past job, homes, and family. There were questions and answers concerning Fort Monroe and its history.

There was discussion over past appeals. Joe and Benny talked about 3 that they could remember.

There was discussion concerning the amount and location of new home growth in the county. The GWAP area in Locust Grove was discussed.

Barbara told the Board that when the variances from the 2015 and 2018 code changes are available, she will copy and send them to each member.

Meeting adjourned at 5:38 pm
