This program is available at two locations, OCHS & LGMS, with different hours for beginner and advanced instruction. Those who wish are welcome to participate as many weeks as they like, though separate fees will apply. The instructor for this program, Mr. Harris, has over 25 years of chess instruction experience including coaching scholastic chess teams to regional and state tournaments. Novice players will be taught how to play and advanced players will be tested to determine the level of instruction they will receive. A camp syllabus including instructional levels 1-7 will be provided to each chess camper.
